INFO-PACK FOR ACADEMIC YEAR 2017-2018

1. MEVLANA EXCHANGE PROGRAMME STUDENT EXCHANGE

(1) Within the framework of the Mevlana Exchange Programme, students registered in formal education at higher education institutions (on condition that the higher education institutions signed a bilateral Mevlana Exchange Protocol) can participate in student Exchange. Exchange involves the student registered at higher education institution to continue part of his/her education in another higher education institution which is a party of Mevlana Exchange Programme Protocol. The Student Exchange period consists of at least one, at most two terms. The calculation of terms can be revised by considering the education system. However, the total exchange period shall not exceed one education-training year.

(2) Students registered at open, outside, informal or distance education can not benefit from the Mevlana Exchange Programme.

(3) Students studying at preparatory or first year of associate or bachelor's degree and postgraduate and doctoral students studying at preparatory or scientific preparatory terms can not benefit from this programme for the first term that they have started the their primary study.

(4) Students may study abroad for one (minimum) or two (maximum) semesters. Semester periods may be different considering the education systems but the total exchange period can not exceed one academic year. Academic staff also may participate in Mevlana Exchange Programme. Academic staff mobility periods can be minimum two weeks and at maximum three months for once only in the same education-training year.

Application Requirements of Mevlana Exchange Programme

The requirements for being a Mevlana Exchange Programme Student are;

- to be studying at associate degree, bachelor degree, master degree or phd degree of higher education programmes,
- Grade point average (GPA) of associate degree and undergraduate students must be at least 2,5 on a four point scale,
- Grade point average (GPA) of graduate students (MA, PhD) must be at least 3.00 on a four point scale,
- ❖ In matters of equivalencies of the grades in which the grade system is calculated over a hundred in the quadrat system, related CHE decisions are admitted.

Evaluation of the applications and student admission

- During the evaluation, 50% of grade point average and 50% of language scores are taken into account and students are ranked using cumulative value of these two factors.
- A language exam result determined jointly which forms a basis in student selection is requested from the students applying to the Mevlana Exchange Programme by the higher education institutions that have signed the Exchange protocol.
- Evaluation of the results is announced through the web site of signatory higher education institutions.
- Provisions of this article are applied in student selection and the evaluation of the applications of the students who will come from abroad. However the evaluation of the applications of students who will come from abroad and student selections are carried out within the knowledge of signatory national higher education institution.
- Within this programme, matters like extent, duration and conditions of the student selection and applications to execute student exchange in an active and efficient way can be rearranged by CHE Executive Board if deemed necessary.

Tuition Fee

Students do not pay any tuition fees to the host institution during the programme, but they continue to pay the obligatory tuition fees to their home institutions.

They do not pay any extra fee to the host institution within the scope of the exchange programme. However, they are responsible for transportation to and from the host university and for all living and personal expenses during the exchange.

Student Scholarships in Mevlana Exchange Programme

Mevlana Exchange Programme students continue to take their other scholarships and grants in their home countries.

Incoming students from other countries to Turkish higher education institutions are granted according to the ratios determined by Council of Higher Education (CHE) Executive Board. In terms of the scholarships that will be paid to the students, 80 % of the scholarship amount is paid when they arrive and deliver all necessary documents to Mevlana Exchange Programme Office. For the student's remaining grant payment, the ratio of total credits of the succeeded courses to the courses that the student is obliged to take as obligatory courses will be considered. According to this, incoming Mevlana Exchange Programme students to Turkey will be granted as 900 TL per month in 2017-2018. Besides, our Council of Higher Education has just stated that just 4 months in a term will be granted for incoming exchange students.
